

While baby is not expected until December, our Communications & Operations Manager's pregnancy complications have caused her to take a step back and prioritize her and her baby's health for the time being.

A Communications Assistant during her absence is pending. The McAuliffes appreciate your prayers for health and God's guidance as they manage this season.

Please direct any emails to dover.info@doverbaptist.org that you would have sent directly to her. Thanks!

You're Invited Home!

Dear Family and Friends of Antioch,

For 250 years, generations have gathered at Antioch Baptist Church to worship, serve, celebrate, mourn, grow, and share life together. From a small congregation established in 1776 to the church family we are today, God has blessed Antioch with a remarkable story of faith and service.

Throughout 2026, we have celebrated that story—and now we invite you to join us for the culmination of our anniversary year:

ANTIOCH 250 HOMECOMING WEEKEND

Celebrating 250 Years of Faith • 1776–2026

Saturday, October 10 • 2:00–4:00 p.m.

A Community Birthday Party

Enjoy an afternoon of music featuring Amy Ladd, Ronnie Harris, and Jeff Farrier, followed by birthday cake, ice cream, a time capsule, fellowship, and plenty of birthday fun. This celebration is for our entire community—members, former members, neighbors, friends and families.

Sunday, October 11 • 10:30 a.m.

250th Anniversary Homecoming Worship & Luncheon

On Sunday, we will gather for a very special Homecoming Worship Service celebrating God's faithfulness through two and a half centuries. We are honored to welcome special guests from the Dover Baptist Association, the Virginia Baptist Historical Society, and others who have been part of Antioch's story.

Following worship, we will continue the celebration with a catered Homecoming luncheon and time to celebrate God's people who came before us, those who faithfully serve today, and those who will carry the story forward.

Whether Antioch is your church home today, was part of your life many years ago, or you are simply a friend or neighbor, you are part of our story, and we would love to celebrate with you.

Come home to Antioch for this celebration 250 years in the making!

With joy and gratitude,
The Antioch Baptist Church Family

HOW CAN THE WOUNDS OF OUR HEARTS BE HEALED?

A Small Group for Bible-based Trauma Healing

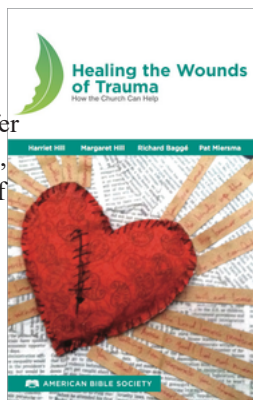

A group to listen

Please join our small group to bring healing to wounds to the heart—emotions, spirit, soul—from trauma or loss. If you suffer from hopelessness, nightmares, ongoing sadness or exhaustion, unexplained anger, flashbacks, being overwhelmed, feelings of isolation, or unprocessed grief, whatever the source, this small group may be for you.

The group will be led by facilitators who are trained in Bible-based trauma healing. Together, we will make a safe space for group members to:

- Discover what the Bible says about suffering
- Learn about trauma and its effects
- Explore any trauma or loss you may be carrying
- Release some of the emotional pain you carry
- Help you get unstuck, reconnected, and ready to move on in life
- Build resilience for the future

About the group model

This healing group uses the proven and time-tested model of the Trauma Healing Institute at American Bible Society. Using applied Scripture and best mental health principles, we can help you address spiritual and emotional wounds caused by trauma of war, violence, natural disasters, serious accidents, and abuse.

The group will use the book Healing the Wounds of Trauma: How the Church Can Help. It is in use in over 100 countries with more than 194 language groups in Africa, Asia, the Pacific and the Americas. To learn more about the model, the Trauma Healing Institute, and its work in equipping and supporting a global community of workers in trauma care, please visit TraumaHealingInstitute.org.

“Coming into this group, I was angry and bitter but I didn’t know why—and I was taking it out on my family. When we discussed one of the stories in this book, I saw myself. I realized that the anger was coming from pain deep inside. As I was able to talk about it and ask Jesus to heal me, the pain got less and less. Now I am freed from the anger and my family is happy.” – “Sam,” participant in a healing group, June 2013

Food Insecurity : IMMEDIATE NEEDS

The Hanover County Sheriff's Office understands the important role that faith communities and houses of worship play in caring for neighbors and strengthening our shared communities. In light of potential pauses in federal resources that could affect families' access to food, Hanover County Administration, in partnership with the Sheriff's Office, are seeking your help to ensure that those in need have reliable support. We are asking faith communities and churches to consider coordinating a simple effort beginning this weekend and into the holiday season by supporting a food collection that can help provide nutritious, nonperishable items to households facing food insecurity.

Sigma Alpha Omega® Christian Sorority

“One in Christ through Unity in Sisterhood”SM

(Survey Center on American Life, 2024)

How is your church investing in the Christian faith development and retention of Gen Z's young women?

Who is Sigma Alpha Omega®?

SAO is an interdenominational, non-denominational national collegiate social sorority headquartered in North Carolina since 1998 (501(c)(7) non-profit). Its mission is “To glorify God by reaching women across the world through the expansion of the sisterhood, by encouraging spiritual development through Christ-inspired accountability and unity, by participating in evangelistic and philanthropic endeavors, and focusing on good scholarship and humble leadership.” It takes to heart John 17:20-21 in Jesus’ final prayer before his arrest for the unity of believers in Christ.
